KANSAS OFFICIALS UNEASY.

Sheriffs and Treasurers Concerned Over Tenure of Office.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Topeka, Kas., Oct. 30.-In the 165 counties of the State of Kansas the Sheriffs and County Treasurers are facing a serious County Treasurers are facing a serious question as to their tenure of office. The Sheriffs on their second terms are the most concerned as to what shall happen to them by reason of the biennial-election law. They hope to be permitted to retain their offices another year after their elected term expires the second Monday in January. Governor Stanley to-day decided to appoint other men to their places.

It is conceded that the first-term men will retain their offices, but they are also worried lest if they stay another year the law will operate against them for an elective second term.

The County Treasurers are similarly placed, but their terms do not end till October 15, 1902, and appointments, if any are made, will rest with the County Commissioners.

made, will rest with the County Commis-sioners.

These questions are the most important before the conference of Sheriffs and Treas-urers, in session here to-day.

Sixty-two Sheriffs are serving first terms and forty-three second terms. Sixty-one: Treasurers are serving first terms and forty-four second terms.
